MEMO ENDORSED

Report DENIED. I would have liked to reschedule the meeting but I do a "modest" U.S. Settlement and my schedule this week is fully booked and cannot accommodate a settlement conference.

Re: 12 East 12 Associates, LP v. Whistler Tree, Inc. 11 Civ. 2969 (DLC) (AJP)

Dear Judge Peck:

This firm represents the plaintiff, which is the owner of the Gotham Bar and Grill. We write to request the Court to reschedule the settlement conference currently scheduled for Friday, August 12 to either Monday or Tuesday, August 15 or 16. The reason for the request is that one of the two main client representatives, both of whom would like to attend the mediation, sustained a significant knee injury (a blow out) and is having trouble getting around this week. He tells me, however, that he should be much more mobile next week, with the benefit of additional rest.

I presented the circumstances behind this modest request (the delay is only a weekend) to counsel for defendants. Counsel refused.

Very truly yours,

Andrew T. Solomon

Request DENIED. I would have liked to accommodate the plaintiff, but I am on "criminal duty" all of next week and my schedule therefore is fully booked and cannot accommodate a settlement conference.
